On 15 and 16 October 1952, three troop trains with a total of about 1,800 recruits arrived at the Neuruppin and Altruppin railroad stations (W 53/4 49). The troops were quartered in the Fridericus Kaserne on Altruppiner Allee and the Friedrich Franz Kaserne on Fehrbelliner Strasse. On 16 October, small groups of trained personnel left the military post on regular trains from the Altruppin railroad stations. On 17 and 18 October, a total of 24 boxcars with 931 trained personnel wearing red-bordered black epaulets left the Altruppin and the Neuruppin railroad stations.<sup>1</sup>

- 25X1 25X1 1. Comment. [redacted] reported the arrival from Neustrelitz of 750 recruits on 11 and 13 October 1952, but failed to observe their detainment. [redacted] on transportation indicated that, on 15 October 1952, [redacted] transported recruits from Neustrelitz to Altruppin. [redacted] the initial departure of trained personnel was already indicated by a report [redacted] according to which soldiers due for discharge were shipped to Altruppin on 10 and 16 October. 25X1
